

THE DAILY APPEAL.
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1858.

The WEATHER.—Yesterday was cool and pleasant. The night was cold.

The TRIP.—The City Council and the Press go on a trip to GALLERSON's works down the river at 5 o'clock this morning.

WAGON LOAD.—The first wagon load of cotton of the season arrived yesterday. It contained six bales.

VISITING THE PRISONERS.—Mr. MERRIMAN conducted divine service among the prisoners in jail yesterday.

SUPERIOR BRANDY and HENRICK champagne will be sold to-day at the trade by G. B. LOOMIS & CO., this day at 9 o'clock. The sale will be positive, and without reserve.

TRANSPORTED.—The quantity of cotton transported over the Charleston railroad from this city during the last season was 629 bales. It went to STEVENSON.

CENTRAL.—The position of the moon on Venus, as seen in the west last night after sunset, was extremely favorable. The stars were visible to the eye of the clear sky.

French LOU.—This woman who was stabbed by ELIZA MILLIKEN, is declared by her physician to be out of danger. She is very weak and still confined to her bed.

JOHN ARK.—This unhappy man was yesterday, his condition is reported to be the most unhappy, reason being for the greater part of the time deceased.

THE EXAMINATION.—The examination of ELIZA MILLIKEN, with stabbing to French Lou, with the purpose of killing her, was taken place at 10 this morning before Ex-House John Ark will also be examined if his state of health will allow it.

FOUGHT, BLEED AND PAID.—G. A. JUNEMAN, THOS. WENK, JOHN CONKLIN and JUNEAU FAULKENER were each charged before Ex-House yesterday, with fighting. The little whipping treat they had participated in cost them six dollars each.

A BRICK.—DANIEL SHEAHAN considers himself a brick, and he carries, usually, a brick in his hat. He yesterday threw a brick at a man seated on a back. The Recorder considered this monopoly of brick by DANIEL unfair, and charged him eleven dollars for trying to break it up.

THANKS.—We thank our reader friend Mr. W. McCOMICK, of Elizabethtown, Tennessee, for a club of ten subscribers to our Weekly. We are also indebted to Mr. J. L. CLEAVER, of Oakland, Tenn., for a club of eleven to the same paper.

FIREMAN'S RIOT.—SAM. WARD, JOHN HINES and CAROL Brown are to be tried Monday afternoon next before the Recorder at 3 o'clock in the charge of being active participants in the late fireman's riot.

MURDER.—Sherry Smith is accused of having put into the body of a negro on Sept. 7, the purpose of killing him, and all the upper rivers are reported. The Missouri river is becoming very bad, and boats spend a great deal of their time around.

ANSWER.—JOHN WILLIAMS was fined eleven dollars by the Recorder, yesterday, for shamelessly hitting his wife.

J. R. ARCHER.—The name of this gentleman is widely and favorably known, the author of the "Handbook of the American Slave." We have the pleasure of introducing him to our readers in his original character as Capt. J. R. ARCHER, in command of the steamship John Bell. The Bell will leave our landing on Monday evening at 4 o'clock for Louisville. She is a light boat, built expressly for low water, and will be found the best boat for the river, as the river is affected by a good rainfall.

CASH PAID.—FOR DAY AND GREEN RIDES.—W. F. LEWIS, Captain of Mats and Morris.
